

West Midlands North Foundation School

Individual Placement Description – Burton Hospital

Placement	FY1 Paediatrics
The department	Paediatrics
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The FY1 in Paediatrics works 0900 to 1700 and is involved across the unit with all patient care which includes - acute admissions, ward based work, neonatal unit, attending deliveries and newborn examinations. FY1 have the opportunity to attend outpatient clinics. Induction is provided at the start of placement. Session includes paediatric prescribing. Training in Paediatric Immediate Life Support and Newborn life Support ideally within 1st month or prior to placement where possible. Daily consultant ward round with opportunity to present a history, observe an examination by the consultant and to learn from discussions around case. Guidelines available for the management of common paediatric problems on the paediatric intranet webpage. FY1 are encouraged to attend along with team, Paediatric resuscitations in the Emergency Department. Trainees experience multi-disciplinary team working including safe guarding as the team works closely with the nursing staff, physiotherapists, dieticians, specialist nurses, community nurses and social services. FY1s are encouraged to present and discuss cases at the grand rounds. They are also allocated a topic and case to present for peer led teaching. There is a plenty of opportunity to undertake a supervised audit or service improvement project. Encouraged to undertake Paediatric procedures include - IV cannulation, blood taking and lumbar puncture. F1s are expected to attend the structured departmental teaching and also the Generic Foundation Teaching programme. Mon: Grand round/ X-ray meeting Tues: Neonatal Grand round Wed: Departmental Teaching/Audit Meeting Thurs: Junior Doctor Teaching Simulation teaching arranged in advance Tues or Wed once a month Peer review meetings (Child protection/mortality & Morbidity review)
Where the placement is based	Burton Hospital
Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Azhar Manzoor

Main duties of the placement	Attend and participate in handovers and ward rounds including neonatal unit – undertake the jobs generated from the ward round. Take histories and examine patients on PAU or admitted to the wards via outpatient clinic. Participate in emergency management as part of paediatric resuscitation team. Attend deliveries and perform Newborn examinations. Completion of discharge summaries and TTOs in a timely manner. Perform cannulations and venepunctures. Participate in teaching and audit. Expected to attend Departmental and Generic FY teaching. Maintain professional standards as per Trust policy and GMC guidance
Typical working pattern in this placement	Monday – Friday: 0900 – 1700 Rotate weekly between Paediatric Ward and Neonatal/Postnatal Ward
Employer information	Burton Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.